

Video Conferencing

Register and login to browse our FREE catalogue of dHL Experts available for loan. Choose from hundreds of industry professionals, business leaders, and organizations in all K-12 curriculum subject areas. Connect by video conference and engage students in virtual programs, Q&A, career talks, and mentorships on a mutually agreeable date and time.

Service Summary

- Unlimited simultaneous user access to our Video Conferencing Catalogue for one academic year
- Hundreds of experts available to connect with K-12 teachers and students
- Experts sourced from recommendations made by K-12 Canadian teachers
- Educational programs, mentorships, Q&As, and career talks lasting 30-40 minutes
- Video conferences scheduled on a mutually agreeable date and time
- Resources for Teachers available to support classes through every step of the process
- Customer support available via email

How Does it Work?

- Registered teachers login to dHL and choose our Video Conferencing Catalogue
- Search for Experts by keyword and/or choose any of the advanced search options
- Contact Experts and/or register for a program as indicated by the Expert in his/her profile
- Browse with PCs, Mac, or Mobile Devices in any browser (Chrome, Safari, etc)
- Email our support team to assist you with your account or technical questions you may have at info@digitalhumanlibrary.com

Our Programs

- Programs offered in all K-12 curriculum subject areas
- Our content partners include leading museums, zoos, aquariums, art and historical organizations, universities, science centers, authors, botanical gardens, performing arts centers, and many others...
- As we grow, so does our library of Experts!

How to Get Started?

- Visit our Video Conferencing Catalogue to learn more
- Register for free with Digital Human Library. If you already have an account no registration is required.
- Once registered, browse our Catalogue anytime, anywhere!

Questions?

- Contact us!